The Grotto Band has accepted an invitation to play for Martha Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at the New Order of the Eastern Star, at the New Ebbitt, October 9.

Capt. P. V. Keating of the Grotto Drill Corps states that some misunderstanding exists relative to the date of the Halloween dance and entertainment of the Drill Corps at the New Willard Hotel. The affair is to be given on the evening of October 31, and the date will not be changed.

Rare sights are promised for the occasion, including exalted ghosts by a host of hobgoglins, witches, fairies and spooks galore, with little white winged fairies flitting here and there with Halloween tokens and messages. The costumes of the ladies will be in the smaller of the two dance halls at the Arcade building, 14th street and Park road. Admission will be by card. The lodge has the F. C. degree scheduled for October 20 and the E. A. degrees for November 3.

The costumes of the ladies will be in Lodge, No. 26, Junior Warden James Lodge, Kallipolis Grotto Glee Club entertained Washington-Centennial Lodge, No. 14. at Masonic Temple Friday evening, at the eighteenh degree—"knight yevening, the occasion being "Ed Schnidnight" of Washington-Centennial Lodge, of which he is a member.

In addition to a number of medleys by the Glee Club under the leadership of Charles A. Stevens, with Jacque Heidenheimer at the plano and A. H. Staples, violinist, individual solos were contributed by Otto Woerner, Wilbur E. Fookes, Charles D. Shackleford, Joseph Gross and Kirk C. Miller. I. S. Goldsmith amused with a humous recitation, and Monarch George H. Emmons, jr., and Past Monarch P. R. Pullman made short addresses.

As an added attraction motion pictures were shown of the grotto's excursion to Chesapacke Beach last June, depicting the landing of the "Bremen," during which the principal characters, Fred H. Not to be outdone, Washington-Centennial Lodge sprang a surprise on the prophets by breaking in with a comedy of their own. Calling Deputy Grand Monarch Edward S. Schmid to the platform, Dr. Clarence R. Du Four, Charles M. Keefer, P. V. Keating and P. H. McCarthy, who are also members of the groto, in solemn and impressive manner crowned him as "grand sabiu" of an order with an outlandishly unpronounceable name, and placed about his neck the insignia of office, which consisted of a huge placard bearing mysterious symbols and figures. He was then asked to be seated, but his solourn in the chair was of short duration, for it proved to be the electric grotte chair, into which he had often lured other unsuspecting victims himself.

monarch George H. Emmons, ir., has announced October 19 as the date for the fall ceremonial of Kallipolis Grotto, which is to be staged at Odd Fellows' Hall. The ceremonial will be a full ritualistic ceremony, together with many new features of amusement. There will be stuntes, of course, and many novel and seasonal features specially "conjured" to suit the occasion, with an abundance of refreshments and cigars to smoke. Monarch Emmons has asked for a class of 200 candidates, and the class, it is said, will be close to that number.

It is hoped to double the grotto membership before the convening of the Supreme Council convention in this city next June, and the ceremonial of October 19 will mark the initial step in this direction. Propaganda work is well under way, the "Busy Bees," "Willing Workers" and "Live Wires" running "a triangular experiment in augmentation."
